"Change For The Better"

When you think about it does it make you wonder do you find that everytime you look around that things just get no better you know it's all gone too far sometimes it's just to hard don't let it get you down cause we're all in this together and they're pushing to hard time to push it back everyday take a stand we're gonna make a change for the better sometimes the life's so unkind all I want is what is mine, starting right now take it from the start cause you know the reason and we have got to pay the cost to find what's lost and get back what they have borrowed fears yo know we all shed the tears time and time again cause it's real and though you doubt yourself you never stop believing.
