In the mist of winter day
The red sunlight lazy day
Nothing here is motionless
Everywhere I breathe taboo

There's no one else just me and you
In our magic solitude
Tears descend
Tears descend
She's sixteen moving into one direction, one emotion
Now she's seventeen
She's a fatal cause of mad love, curse
Heaven can't wait

Once a smile of sight and tell
Where the people did not dwell
Nightly at a secret hour
Keep us above the creepy flowers

There's no one else
Just me and you
In our magic solitude
Tears descend
Tears descend
She's sixteen moving into one direction, one emotion
Now she's seventeen
She's a fatal cause of mad love, curse
Heaven can't wait

Tears descend
Tears descend
She's sixteen moving into one direction, one emotion
She's sixteen moving into one direction, one emotion
In a secret hour
She's seventeen
She's a fatal cause of mad love, curse
Heaven can't wait
