There was a time
when you were so fine
and I would rarely even see you afraid
now is a time
a rather sad time
you're all alone and you can not find your way
I can recall as clear as yesterday we'd sit around and you would tell me your dreams so full of life your heart's now blown away to your demise
life aint always what it seems I can take you where you want to be but you have to want to be free It's just a shame how you have fallen prey
to a little rock that seems to cause you this pain concealed
it all well
for a little while denying all just as it burns you away
and
it feels so right
there's no need to improve
as it blows your mind
and
you're high on that groove but then you bring me down and tell me that it's cool
you have it in control
then you lose
