"Love & Tears"

By the look in your eyes and in the silence I hear the change coming it's only a matter of time it's been a long time since we made love together and longer since the times when you used to say how you loved me I want to know how to separate love and tears
you used to open your heart and tell the secrets you'd dare tell no other you knew that I'd keep them inside
now all I get are your lies and all the promises that there's no other you'd never have a lover beside me girl, you played me for a fool, yeah
I want to know how to separate
...love and teardrops falling down again, oh cause you let me down again, you see when I'm giving you the best of me and I'm masking for a chance or did you find another man gonna take you away and buy you everything you ever dreamed
