after more than 700 years of ungrateful love we conscious to(come) reunited against the growling winds i know... i know she'll be here again i know all about this cavern world in your fragile head come up here come with me through the oceans of ungrateful tears
i know she'll be here again...

all my life i wanted to love again all my life i wanted to be again come again...
be my friend in the land of what was then so a bomb explodes at the embassy the F.U.C.K. claims we will never be the same soldiers of fortune take me to space mountain

well i know... i know she'll be here again

come again...

well my tears will never see the rains of yesterday i'd never could've thought my heart would break this way inside of me

come again...

come again...
what was then...
