A cloud comes over me, I tell your story.
A life told in the glow of England's Glory.
A day gone up in smoke, is all I have to show.
The win that got away, its only pain, it's just

It comes back to me sometimes
I can't help pulling down the blinds but it's been:

Nice to know you, nice to have you.
Nice to learn from your mistakes
It's nice to live to see today
But I don't want to be that sad smile kind of thing
But I can't help it if you care.

Sunshine on my face, I'm on my feet again.
Life picks up a pace, I'm on my back again.
Eyes back in my head, is how I want to feel.
A sad smile kind of thing, it's only pain, just deal.

It comes back to me sometimes
I feel like pulling down the blinds but it's been:

Nice to know you, nice to have you.
Nice to learn from your mistakes
It's nice to live to see tod from your mistakes
It's nice to live to see today
But I don't want to be that sad smile kind of thing
But I can't help it if you care.

Sunshine on my face, I'm on my feet again.
Life picks up a pace, I'm on my back again.
Eyes back in my head, is how I want to feel.
A sad smile kind of thing, it's only pain, just deal.

It comes back to me sometimes
