Give me the one who's capable to erase and draw fake before and after To lighten the nights of cold that winds whistle in Throw the sun in the sea of dimness, and plant fire
 The tear generate smile along way and tunes blossom, oh time pause Oh time, pause my heart is thirsty Give me that huma
 Oh time, pause, leave me with my lover
 The full sea, with its madness raise me and carry me on it's blue waves, and a flood gush out Leave me on lightning mountains as sparkling star over east's forehead that illuminates dimness of amnesia A view of Lebanon, Oh time pause
