There is a countdown
coming to ahead.
I'm going mad,
so here I keep on singing,
singing to myself
to keep me from crying,
while the countdown is coming to an end.
Should I've seen it coming?
Should I've read the signs?
There's no going back!
And I know it's win or loose
before the sun,
before the sun,
before the sun goes down .
You know I'm trying to do my thing .
Well, it's been a hard day.
It's a hard day,
and the countdown's coming to an end.
Once upon a time,
when I was afraid,
I would stand and face head on.
Now there comes a time
stand or step aside.
Errors will forever haunt.
Well I'm trying to do my best.
Well, it's been a hard day. It's been a hard day,
and the countdown is coming to an end.
