Little girl born of the sea and the sky left on the ground you could never fly little girl dont let the world bring you down left all alone you would surely drown oh little girl smile and the dreams begun under the sea, under the moon and the stars.. and the world is young little girl islands were placed in the sea sand and the waves just for you and me if you will, share it with me little girl sharing our love that was meant to be oh little girl smile and your dreams begun, under the sea, under the moon and stars and the world is young oh little girl smile and the dreams begun under the sea, under the moon and stars.. and the world is young
