I heard you found yourself a new man
And you say you're happy as can be
No one can play that game like you can
But does he give you everything you need

But in good time
You're gonna find
Your eyes were closed and your heart was blind
Now it's too late to change your fate
Cuz there's no way he'll ever take my place

Chorus:
He'll never be what I used to be to you
So if you wanna play the fool
Then make that move
And do what you gotta do
You'll never find a heart that is half as true
I guess you really never knew
But soon you'll see
That he'll never be what I used to be to you

Does he even have a notion
Of what you really feel inside
Are you going through the motions
Living a lie like you're satisfied
But late at night I realize
Something telling you it just ain't right
It's not the same
Am I to blame
When you're with him do you call my name

Chorus

Bridge:
I gave you all my love
What were you thinkin of
Guess it was just a game
It's all the same to you
Too late to try again
This story's at an end
It's time for movin on

Now what you gonna do

But in good time

You're gonna find

Your eyes were closed and your heart was blind

Now it's too late to change your fate

Cuz there's no way he'll ever take my place

Chorus

Bridge

Chorus
