(Verse)

She was the only one to dominate my heart
And she was the only one to illuminate the dark
When its all said and done and the race has been run, run, run.

She was the only one to elevate a smile
Devastate a room, take an inch and then a mile
When its all said and done, shes still the only one, one, one.

(Pre-Chorus)

And I wasted every word I didnt say, she never heard
I wish this was a mixtape I could play past and erase
But its love, love, love.

(Chorus)

I wanna watch my own parade, I wanna bring back
yesterday,
Id split atoms if I had em, but I dont, so anyway
I wanna write it on the moon,
Yeah, this love is like a dream,
That makes me do impossible things, impossible things, impossible.

(Verse)

She was the only one to clear up all the scars,
That look just like a map to many stops and starts
And Im just standing here like a tear that never drops, drops, drops.

(Pre-Chorus)

And I wasted the nouns and the verbs
And its a shame she never heard
I wish this was a mixtape I could play past and erase
But its love, love, love.

(Chorus)

I wanna watch my own parade, I wanna bring back
yesterday,
Id split atoms if I had em, but I dont, so anyway

I wanna write it on the moon,
Yeah, this love is like a dream,
That makes me do impossible things, impossible
things, impossible.

(Bridge)

Im messed up, Im stupid, Im suddenly useless now
Im beat up, Im foolish, youre all I can do right now.

(Chorus)

I wanna watch my own parade, I wanna bring back
yesterday,
Id split atoms if I had em, but I dont, so anyway
I wanna write it on the moon,
Yeah, this love is like a dream,
That makes me do impossible things, impossible
things, impossible.
