Won't throw no shade on you, don't wanna put you
through
Those lies you lived before, girl, I can give you more
Baby, take my hand and try to understand
That I'll be here for you just the way you want me to

Feel like you're wasting all of your time You're goin' out of your mind from all the tears you've been cryin'
And I know all the things he's puttin' you through The cheatin' no one can prove, you never know what to do, yeah

Just tell me what you feel inside
Don't be consumed by foolish pride
'Cause I can see with my two eyes
The pain that you've been holdin' tight

It's time that you begin to feel
The kind of love that's really real, yeah
Girl, let me tell you the deal

Won't throw no shade on you, don't wanna put you
through
Those lies you lived before, girl, I can give you more
Baby, take my hand and try to understand
That I'll be here for you just the way you want me to

It's time for you to decide what you want from your life
No room for compromise
'Cause I can give you everything that you need Open your eyes and you'll see that I can set you free, baby

So come to me with your broken heart
You'll feel the love from the very start
I think it's time for you to part
From a man that leaves you in the dark

You're the type that needs romance
Someone to break you from your trance
Now baby, here is your chance, oh

Won't throw no shade on you, don't wanna put you
through
Those lies you lived before, girl, I can give you more
Baby, take my hand and try to understand
That I'll be here for you just the way you want me to

Won't throw no shade on you, don't wanna put you
through
Those lies you lived before, girl, I can give you more
Baby, take my hand and try to understand
That I'll be here for you just the way you want me to

I know just what you're goin' through
You need a love that will always be true
Look in my eyes, girl I'll give it to you
The way you want me to

Won't throw no shade on you, don't wanna put you
through
Those lies you lived before, girl, I can give you more
Baby, take my hand and try to understand
That I'll be here for you just the way you want me
The way you want me to

Won't throw no shade on you, don't wanna put you
through
Those lies you lived before, girl, I can give you more
Baby, take my hand and try to understand
That I'll be here for you just the way you want me to

Won't throw no shade on you, don't wanna put you
through
Those lies you lived before, girl, I can give you more
Baby, take my hand and try to understand
That I'll be here for you just the way you want me to

The way you want me to, the way you want me to
The way you want me to, the way you want me to
