I rode in to Nashville
On the bus from Knoxville
I know I shouldn't
I just couldn't wait
I just had to see you
To get something straight
Livin' in a house
On last notice
Sittin' in the bathtub
Hot water on my feet
Not alone here
A friend came down with me
I came to see about you
He came to see what he could see
And I hope I haven't come
All this way just to see
Waited all this time
Just to lose...

Glad to see you
Glad you came
Voice sounds different
You still look the same
Might have grown some
In a place or two
A little extra
Always looked good on you
And I hope I haven't come
All this way just to see
Waited all this time
Just to lose...

These dreams of losing you
Oh, don't let them come true

These dreams I had of you
I had forgotten them
But I still remember
You...
