Deep I sleep in my dreams of fire.
Dancing visions of crimson flame.
Till I'll wake on my funeral pyre.
Rebirth a symbol of what I am

Chorus

And our eyes to the stars
Golden feathers and flame I fly
And I'll touch your dreams in the dark
Remember the glory that time passed by.

Once I lived long ago in memory
Gliding like windsong above your land
Now I sleep, may the Gods forgive me.
Awaiting capricious times demand

Chorus

Touch my dreams and the magic wakens
Speak my name and the dream is yours
Born again in the name of Phoenix.
Then lost in legend my power endures.

Chorus
