all good things take time but honor breeds what it brings the triumphs of mankind face our will to believe when justice is right it still wont set us free life is a hoarse brazen oath

that warriors sing
a song that mocks the wars broken call love is a hoarse brazen oath that pleads to the kings a sound that mocks the wars they bring time takes all things but it leaves what they bring loves that bind our hearts mark our godless retreat the chariots sing their songs about heeds to their reins

a song that mocks the wars they bring
