Tried to find both my life and my love
Took the time to write down all my thoughts
Found that I need to let go these (let go, oh let go)
All of my worthless insecurities

Cause I've got the tendency
Of dancing away at anything alarming
And so...

Can you, will you
At least attempt to stay now?
Just turn around
I'll make you breakthrough
Never betray you
And now I know that I
Can't go back on all those promises I shattered but
Can you, will you
At least attempt to stay now?

Wonder why, why it's taken so long
To step back and admit all my wrongs
Always gave everything you had to me (everything to me)
Tell me why I continue abusing

My insecurities have taken away
What I consider charming
And so...

Can you, will you
At least attempt to stay now?
Just turn around
I'll make you breakthrough
Never betray you
And now I know that I
Can't go back on all those promises I shattered but
Can you, will you
At least attempt to stay now?

Whoa, I'll never tell you why I do those things I do
Whoa, oh please just show me some understanding,

baby
Whoa, just trust my soul that I, I'm trying, God I'm trying
Oh, to let you know that I, I've tried to tell you that...

My insecurities have taken away
What I consider charming
And so...

Can you, will you
At least attempt to stay now?
Just turn around
I'll make you breakthrough
Never betray you
And now I know that I
Can't go back on all those promises I shattered but
Can you, will you
At least attempt to stay now?
