You're not, you're not
I don't think you're coming clean
I won't, I won't,
I won't let you lie to me
Never felt so alone
It's funny how things go
Guess we'll never know

I took you back tonight,
Hoping that you weren't the same
This won't ever be alright,
Can't believe a word that you say
I took you back tonight,
Hoping that you weren't the same
I give it up tonight

Don't tell me you ruined this,
'Cause you're scared
Now I know that you're foolish,
For every minute you wasted,
I will tear all apart what is left of this
'Cause baby, you ruined this

So stop and think,
Will you ever be happy?
No, you won't
There is just no fooling me
Never felt so alone,
It's funny how things go
Guess we'll never know

I took you back tonight,
Hoping you weren't the same
This won't ever be alright
Can't believe a word you say
I took you back tonight,
Hoping you weren't the same
I give it up tonight

Don't tell me that you ruined this,
'Cause you're scared

Now I know that you're foolish
For every minute that you wasted
I will tear all apart what is left of this

Don't tell me that you ruined this,
'Cause you're scared
Now I know that you're foolish
For every minute that you wasted
I will tear all apart what is left of this
'Cause baby you ruined this

And I took you back tonight,
But this won't ever, ever be right

I took you back tonight
I took you back tonight

Don't tell me that you ruined this,
'Cause you're scared
Now I know that you're foolish
For every minute you wasted
I will tear all apart what is left of this

'Cause baby I'm wounded
From the sin of your kiss
I'm so foolish
For all the years we wasted
You can stare in the dark,
At this nothingness
'Cause baby you ruined this,
Baby you ruined this
