There's a million and one things I like about you

Can we exchange it, can I trade it with you?

But if you're not gonna pay, why should I stay,
Why should I stay with you?

If you're not gonna pay, why should I stay, with you?

There's a billion and one things I wanna change with you.

Could we exchange it? I wanna change with you

But if you're not gonna pay, why should I stay,

Why should I stay with you?

If you're not gonna pay, why should I stay, with you?

There's a trillion and one things I love about you

Can we exchange it, can I trade it with you?

But if you're not gonna pay, why should I stay,

Why should I stay with you?

If you're not gonna pay, why should I stay, with you?
