Stunning to my senses, losing all my defences, overriding all my directions you know you have me reeling needing your healing don't want to hit the ceiling but I got a feeling it's my heart your stealing a spiritual killing in need of your medicinal healing everytime you have me reeling it's numbing my senses how youve taken down all my fences no longer have any defences you begin making corrections no longer overiding all my directions but I got a feeling you have a way of dealing with the heart your stealing stop me from hitting the ceiling when your giving me your medicinal healing no longer a spiritual killing it's my heart your healing bringing me to my senses giving me back all my defences rebuilding my fences but I got a feeling I will always need your medicinal healing
