What have you become my friend?
I had loved you for so long
Time tears at this heart of mine
Don't you see what you have done?

Every breath that you take almost adds to the pain
But this emptiness holds no shame
Gave you all that I could always more than I should
Now this bitterness owns me

But it's not the first time
It won't be last time
I find you

Can't begin to understand
You have twisted all I am

Every breath that you take almost adds to the pain
But this emptiness holds no shame
Gave you all that I could always more than I should
Now this bitterness owns me

It's not the first time
It won't be the last time
I'll find you

It's not the first time
It won't be the last time
I'll find you

But it only hurts this much
Yes, it only hurts this much
It only hurts this much

It's not the first time
It won't be the last time
I'll find you

Every breath that you take almost adds to the pain
But this emptiness holds no shame
Gave you all that I could always more than I should

Now this bitterness owns me

But it only hurts this much
Yes, it only hurts this much
It only hurts this much
(It's not the first time)
I'll find you
