You have never been sure
You have lied here before
You get to yourself
Why want it it all.

Faced your failures on your own
Turn in circles, letting go.

If you don't bring that for the best
Then you're only cheating yourself
Don't look down it's just a little higher
Don't let go I am still your fire.

And hold on, reach out
You can do it if you try
See it, feel it
Don't give up there's always time
Cover distance shows the end it's just inside
Now let me see you shine.

You have never been sure
You have been here before
Stop putting it down
Stop selling it out.

There is nothing certain?

Don't face your failures on your own.

If you don't bring that for the best
Then you're only cheating yourself
Don't look down it's just a little higher
Don't let go I am still your fire.

And hold on, reach out
You can do it if you try
See it, feel it
Don't give up there's always time
Cover distance shows the end it's just inside
Now let me see you shine.

And hold on, reach out
You can do it if you try
See it, feel it
Don't give up there's always time
Cover distance shows the end it's just inside
Now let me see you shine.

Now let me see you shine,
Let me see you shine.
