Yo.. in a dark prison vision microphones moving in motion
Volcanic vocalism sparkin flames beneath the ocean Deep rhyme production advanced psychological powers
Time rearranga seconds take minutes minutes take hours
Put venom in veins when I'm in brains witness the pain Adrenaline gain, speed so quick I'm dodging rain rough narrator strangulation gave him a red colla derrange writa paragraph makin the dead holla the mad magician flashin my south park diploma manipulate minds wrote 20 rhymes inside a coma the speed reada studied wise books to learn how ya heart is heat bring a hellafied enough to burn fire yo battles telepathic skill destined to get ya might read your mind while you kick your rhyme and say it with ya had side effects from multiple doses of lethal lithium lyrical blast inbalance the planets equilibrium unexplainable mic missile launcher lyrics untamable voice master with 3 vocal cords that's interchangeable show the wrath of violent hurricanes when I finish no photographs my body won't sustain visual image come face the lesson incarceration my topic locks through space compression planets in a microscopic box the dream controla reach in my thoughts and grab a vision ideas burn at top speed mental metabolism deep time first so all future lyrics I never lay 'em each rhyme verse be on tape a week before I say 'em solidified my status weakened your vital signs composed chapter tonight it takes 2 weeks to write a line
I giveth distribute the punches nobody throws rougha my flows tougha than leather love it when my foes suffa

too rough on the same level we ain't gonna never be super thinker sending unsolveable questions to jeopardy murder serenade computer thought device I empower woke and counted every molecule on earth in one hour invade your satellite your TV frequencies I dismantle now I'm stranglin a different punk on 200 channels high velocity genetic cloning coming in threes now there's 4 versions of K-Rino blow torchin' mc's solar energy ignites concepts spray like a gun killin heated ya cool enough to be up on the sun chillen chaotic madness I exert the explosion bodies eternally twisting in a circular motion when I, come in the game click this thought to flowin' vital droppin' 30 flows a night like I was tryna win a scoring title
the best you ever heard is ag in my temple multidimensional my clever words make calculus simple weak styles missing in action once I got 'em I hit hyperactive butcher knife packin mental bottomless pit bring a hundred mc's still it ain't no stoppin' this injection makin the planet spin up in the opposite direction I wreck punish the prisona it's sad how I do 'em tied him up for 22 days and read his own rhymes to
'em step to my right it's the wrong turn so make a left suffocate you but once a month I'll let you take a breath steppin to us, one fuss death is a must, you cuss so I'ma bust, might just turn him to dust the king drama I sing, I fling lyrics that sting, quick death is what I bring, one swing he's out the ring can't cope cause I'm to dope, I hope you brought your scope
my quote punctured his throat, you spoke so get a rope I'm still a threat to kill Too real to lose my skill I spill verses you feel, done deal so write your will I sing just like dream, my theme murdered your team you scream felling the steam of extreme nuclear beams enduse lyrical juice, this news I put to use, crack an atom open lettin all the matters rhyme spirits loose I keep on goin while competitors drop, K-Rino never defeated cause

me flowin' non-stop non-stop non-stop non-stop
