"With You Now"

Visit "With You Now" on MotoLyrics.com

Track down your worst desire
From your secret dreams
From your deepest mind
Hold on when the time is right
No matter how you try to flee
You belong to me

Packed into the darkest corner
My power over you grows
Stronger and stronger
No matter where you hide
You are always mine

I will go anywhere with you now
I will go anywhere with you now

I own you and i never tire
No matter how you try to flee
You belong to me

I will go anywhere with you now
I will go anywhere with you now
