"Draw"

If there's violence in your heart
Then we have something in common
Whenever we're apart
I want to break

If the ocean's in our way
Then we'd better start quick-swimming
If you got something to say
Then you fucking say it now

I will draw a line to you
I will draw a line to you
It could be a simple

With the symmetry of parts
If we are disconnected
Separation is an art
Well, I don't think I'll learn

I will draw a line to you
I will draw a line to you
It could be simple

My hand guides my pencil
Well, my head is a mad child
Scribbling circles

I will draw a line to you
I will draw a line to you
I will draw a line to you
It could be simple
