someday i'm gonna get a dog
and the dog's gonna run free and i won't need a collar or a leash cause i'll be living in the country and when somebody doesn't want to play i'm gonna open up the door wide and i'll be runnin' in the tall grass with my own dog by my side and when i find a secret hiding place i'll make a soft pillow out of hay and i'll share it with my happy dog we will stay there for the whole day i love to be free that's the best thing about me and there's a rover in the world now with the same dream so we will find our way home when the colors of the sunset i see them stretch across a big sky that's a good feeling we get and by the time i go to sleep at night i'm ready for tomorrow as i doze i got a warm cover over me sleeping rover on my toes

'cause we'll be living in the country living in the country!
