Mickey Mouse and your Teddy Bear
Have fallen asleep with you
The little devil has finally laid down
So peaceful so secure
All day long you' ve been like a jet
Flying high in the air
The night has come, everything' s all set
Little girl don' t be afraid

Young blond beauty sail away
In every dream you make
Be the one everyone loves night and day

You know sometimes it' s hard to grow
And you've only just begun
In years you' ll have your chance to know
But now you' re still too young

Young blond beauty sail away
In every dream you make
Be the one love will take free and someday

May your life be so happy
Full of joy, laughters and songs
Your angel face as I can see
Makes the stars sing along

Young blond beauty sail away
In every dream you make
Young blong beauty dream away
In every heart you take
Be the one everyone loves night and day.
