"Never"

Look at me, tell me what you see
Have your fears unseeing eyes?
Leave me here as you still deny
As your heart will slowly migrate back to never

Did I love you never?
Never said forever?
Someone must have held you, couldn't be me
Did I lead you somewhere and then...
Find you where you 've not been
Did I do all the things you could never do?

When your heart will begin to break
In the backroads of your mind
You will be all alone to find
That you never lost me only if you found me, only...

Did I love you never?
Never said forever?
Someone must have held you, couldn't be me
Did I lead you somewhere and then...
Find you where you've not been
Did I do all the things you could never do?

Till you wake, I live suspended time, no sense I find
Open up your eyes, ask yourself all the reasons why
You found me where you left me

Did I love you never?
Never said forever?
I say that I always loved you, do you?
Did I lead you somewhere and then...
Finally you stayed and you heard
What deep inside you already knew
