In her world of fantasy
Wanting to fill her heart's desires
She has traveled in her dreams
To places she hopes to find
But you have all the answers
In simple words that say I love you
Shed a light on her life
Tell her you will be there
Show her you really care
Love her with all your might
Hold her close while you can
Tell her you'll be her man
Cast away your childish dreams
Cause a love like hers is hard to find
Promise her you'll never leave
Let her know you're not that blind
And you will mend the pieces
Whenever she's broken hearted
Shed a light on her life
Tell her you will be there
Show her you really care

Love her with all your might
Hold her close while you can
Tell her you'll be her man
Shed a light on her life
Tell her you will be there
Tell her you really care...
Baby me loving you
Baby me loving you
Baby you loving me
Shed a light on her life
Tell her you will be there
Show her you really care
Love her with all your might
Hold her close while you can
Tell her you'll be her man
Shed a light on her life
Tell her you will be there
Show her you really care
Love her with all your might
Hold her close while you can

Tell her you'll be her man
Tell her you will be her man..
