(Simona Peron/Vincenzo Thoma)

Since you've gone
Flowers grow from tears at dawn
While the faucets cry, the noise is prolonged
Like the rustle of your feet on the lawn
Late at night
I can hear the rusty sounds
And they're pounding so hard inside my head

I can't go on
Since you left I'm gone
I can't go on
Since you left I'm gone, I'm gone...

Can't go on
Pictures going blank, they fade
Silhouettes of you I can't find a trace
It's a nightmare that I can't seem to face

I can't go on
Since you left I'm gone
I have shed my skin
Where you carved your sin!
Where you carved your sin!

Someone else is feeling
What I almost came to feel
And I can't no, I can't go on
The walls are roaming freely
And the rooms have endless skies
And I can't no, I can't go on
I can't go on...

Since you left I'm gone, no, no, no
I can't go on, I can't go on...
I can't hold on
Since you left I'm gone
I have shed my skin
Where you carved your sin!
Where you carved your sin!

Since you've gone.
