(Dan Hill/Barry Mann)

You ask me if I love you and I choke on my reply.
I'd rather hurt you honestly than mislead you with a lie.
For who am I to judge you, in what you say or do
I'm only just beginning to see the real you.

And sometimes when we touch, the honesty's too much
And I have to close my eyes and hide
I wanna hold you till I die, till we both break down and cry.
I wanna hold you till the fear in me subsides.

Romance's an honest strategy, leaves me grappling with my pride
But through the years of maturity, some tenderness survives.
I'm just another writer, still trapped within my truth
A hesitant prize- fighter, still trapped within my youth.

And sometimes when we touch, the honesty's too much
And I have to close my eyes and hide
I wanna hold you till I die, till we both break down and cry.
I wanna hold you till the fear in me subsides.

At times, I'd like to break you and drive you to your knees.
At times, I'd like to break through and hold you endlessly.
At times, I understand you and I know how hard you try.
I've watched while love commands you
And I've watched love pass you by.
At times, I think we're drifters, still searching for a friend
A brother or a sister but then, the passion flares again.

And sometimes when we touch, the honesty's too much
And I have to close my eyes and hide
I wanna hold you till I die, till we both break down and cry.

I wanna hold you till the fear in me subsides.
