Sole-

Here it come, be da eye of the storm
Never saw me comin', but I made sure you was warned
In a blaze, I run, gun high, soundin' da horn
See my neighbors runnin', saw my negative form
When I see you trying to give me, what I need I take it
Fuck games, pass the blame, ain't no need to be fakin' Motherfuckers wanna bring it to the point where I'm breakin'
Feel the wrath in the heart, nigga ain't no mistakin'
You awaken to the calm, like it there was just rain
Here it goes, swallow pride like you swallowed my pain
With a grain, feel my pride, don't you wish it was tame
Can't you say, made it clear, kept a good name
Sole, Play the cards I was dealt in da game
Take it how ya give it
Many keep abandonin' da flame
Depends on how ya livin'
4 playas, nothin' da same
360 clip, left the mark knowing I came
They ain't fucking with it

My bitches, light it up and don't stop
We gonna make it happen till the last one drop
My niggas, light it up and don't quit
In da new millenium don't take no shit
My bitches, light it up and don't stop
They gonna know we real when we let da guns pop
My niggas, light it up and don't quit
Da first on move be da first one hit

Amil-

Something's bout to jump off
I can feel it
Safetys come off
Tight situations when niggas run off
Done off
When da guns go off, pow
We about to light shit up
Quicker than cops write shit up
If it get too hectic, than ya might get stuck

Lock the tide up, gotta hit haters, keep playin'
Never burn bitches, cause you might need favors
17 carrot, stacked three layers
On a house by the mile, before the cenile
Suspects, what the fuck next
I double up texts, like i shuffle up decks
New relationships with those who cut checks
I want what i want, nothin' less
Yeah, Yeah, nigga what

My bitches, light it up and don't stop
We gonna make it happen till the last one drop
My niggas, light it up and don't quit
In da new millenium don't take no shit
My bitches, light it up and don't stop
They gonna know we real when we let da guns pop
My niggas, light it up and don't quit
Da first on move be da first one hit

Sole-
Light it up, hear me callin' your bluff
Knuckle up, life is short when ya thought you were buff
What the fuck, trying to put it down harder than us
Better duck, nigga, head blown like a it was puff
Test your luck, gonna let me show you we ain't playing in here
Times up, we gonna play on your fear
Wanna throw you here, made it perfectly clear
Sole, motherfucker here to switch the gear

Amil-
How you like me now
A little more fiesty now
Don't get mad, cause I might see now
Just imagine what the price be now
Whoa!
I come around, make mouths drop
Got you suckin' your teeth
Pouting a lot
Yeah, when I bring it, I crowd da block
Amil and Sole ain't about to stop

My bitches, light it up and don't stop
We gonna make it happen till the last one drop
My niggas, light it up and don't quit
In da new millenium don't take no shit
My bitches, light it up and don't stop
They gonna know we real when we let da guns pop
My niggas, light it up and don't quit
Da first on move be da first one hit
(repeat x 4)
