So when were you planning to tell me
When did you know it for sure
That you didn't want my love
That you didn't need me anymore
Did you promise to love her forever
Did you tell her how happy she would be
Did she believe all the lies
Did you tell her about me

Tears are all that she has now
Now that she has you
You're gonna feel the pain someday
When it comes back to you

Will you remember tomorrow
How will you sleep tonight
Knowing how you heard
That what your doing isn't right
Are you leading her on with your kisses
And words of what could be
Leaving her flowers so
She could hold?? for all to see

Tears are all that she has now
Now that she has you (now that she has you)
You're gonna feel the pain someday
When it comes back to you

Tears are all that she has now
Now that she has you (now that she has you)
You're gonna feel the pain someday
When it comes back to you

Her tears, her tears are falling
But your time i know is coming
What you do today
Will come back and you will see
What it feels to be in tears

Her tears, her tears are falling
But your time i know is coming

What you do today
Will come back and you will see
What it feels to be in tears

Tears are all that she has now
Now that she has you (now that she has you)
You're gonna feel the pain someday
When it comes back to you

Tears are all that she has now
Now that she has you (now that she has you)
You're gonna feel the pain someday
When it comes back to you

Tears are all that she has now
Now that she has you (now that she has you)
You're gonna feel the pain someday
When it comes back to you
