Yo, if you roll in the H double O D!
Watch your back punk if you don't know me
I made my name back in the golden age
Suckin' on your thumb while I was holdin' on a 12-gauge
And I grew up doing them one time
'Cuz like Kid Frost said "there ain't no sunshine"
For a man coming ill to jaw me
He doesn't know me, no, he never saw me
But still he's talkin' that samo samo
Off goes his shirt - he throws off his kangol
Mr. Tough guy - playing the mad one
He didn't have none - now he got a bad one
Now his boys are out 'cuz he had it
Takin' away from a kid 'ya silly rabbit'
Now maybe next time you'll keep it all in check
But for now homeboy ya gettin' no respect

No Respect, you're gettin' no respect
Pump pump, you're gettin' no respect chump!
No Respect, you're gettin' no respect
Pump pump, so put your ass in check, chump!
No Respect, you're gettin' no respect
Pump pump, that's right you're gettin' no respect, chump!
No Respect, you're gettin' no respect
Pump pump, so put your ass in check, chump!

Yeah, let me pump it up for the avenue
Wearin' a rag, gettin' all the brothers mad at you
Punk - you think ya got it going with your gang sign
But you're scared like a bitch when they pull out the tech nine
Ya' thinking that you're better than me
But let me break ya down with a 1-2-3
Never underestimate the power of the pimp
Walking through the hood with ya gangsta limp
Touche' pussycat 'cuz I got ya phoney
Rollin' like a criminal, shoulda' been a homey
Playing the cool role, being a friend to me
But since you're a chump, you are just another enemy

So how ya gonna talk that crazy junk
Without throwing down, ya sucka ass punk
Maybe next time you'll watch your step
But now, ya gettin' no respect

No Respect, you're gettin' no respect
Pump pump, yeah son you're gettin' no respect chump!
No Respect, you're gettin' no respect
Pump pump, now your life is wrecked, chump!
No Respect, you're gettin' no respect
Pump pump, you're gettin' no respect, chump!
No Respect, you're gettin' no respect
Pump pump, so put your ass in check, chump!

Girl, ya gettin' played on like a flute
Tramping, living like a prostitute
Ya used to be the flyest girl in the hood
But now like a jezebel hon you're no good
The money doesn't make up for the damage kid
The devil made her do it so my lady had just did
Walk to the curb hittin' on the John Smokin' on the herb girl what's goin' on
See ya! and brotherman I wouldn't want to be ya
20 dollar play now ya got gonorrhea
From a freak on the street all tight in a skirt
Baby caught the virus just from doing her work
Silly! but she does it all for a billy
Her body gettin' played like she's Milli ass Vanilli
Got bucks for her thrilly but her life is wrecked
And now that she's dead she's gettin' no respect

No Respect, you're gettin' no respect
Pump pump, you're gettin' no respect chump!
No Respect, you're gettin' no respect
Pump pump, now your life is wrecked, chump!
No Respect, you're gettin' no respect
Pump pump, you're gettin' no respect, chump!
No Respect, you're gettin' no respect
Pump pump, you're gettin' no respect

You're getting no respect
