Yeah!

And they say Rock City
ohhh, ohhh, yeah

[Verse 1]

I-I-I've been impatiently waiting for our time to come since '06 , that's when we signed and thought everything was go with ,
What's a label when your CEO is an artist whose only obvious motive is focusing on his own shit , ironic how he won't let us go, and do our own shit , i promise though...some snow, homie i won't sleep , in times i feel i'll be better off if i sold bricks , still no matter how hard it gets, i won't quit , got so much fire inside i can make hella.. , The rebel with his fists in the air yellin from centre state

now i'm a renegade is what happens when you try to treat the grown , last man like he in the second grade , now all that man really cares about is getting laid and thinks that he's invincible because he hella paid but who got blessed no one's shall curse only a matter of time before we blow like a hand grenade.

[Chorus]

Feels like a dark cloud following me and i just can't escape it,
'cause it's right above me everywhere i go,
and i can't wait until i'm finally free, please believe it, 'cause i'ma make it out this weather that i go.

...clouds away take them away

'cause i'ma make it out this weather that i know.

[Verse 2]

Four years of waiting, could you even believe that he had the audacity to tell us we're too impatient if you let him tell em we always complaining

but can't ya'll blame us what you expect for us to see as you become more famous and buy yourself another house that's way more spacious you're just a dark ass cloud that won't stop raining but i refuse to let you be the reason we ain't made it and plus my mama always told me: son be your own.. stop depending on niggas and make your own moves, walk a mile if you have too but in your own shoes and make sure you learn from the shit that you go through now as i strove to this world full of sinners, who's comfortable with the reflection they see in the mirror i'm only try to paint the people in vivid picture from the heart so please don't mistake me as been a bitter,nigga!

[Chorus]

escape it,
'cause it's right above me everywhere i go,
and i can't wait until i'm finally free,
that i go.

'cause i'ma make it out this weather that i know.
