Being in love life is a party
But I am willing to travel far the distance doesn't matter at all
Cause love is all I am looking for what can you give the girl
That got everything that got cars diamonds rings
The beat of your heart the heart of your soul
Never let go love is all I need

Is all I want I s all you got to give away
I am not asking for much I am just asking for your love
Is all I need is all I want is all you got to give away
I am not asking for much
I am just asking for your love

You can keep that hustle... cause I am well
I really missed the way that... all love is
Is wear without love I don't anything
The cars the jews don't mean a thing
I want your heart your heart and your soul
Never let go

Never let go love is all I need
Is all I want I s all you got to give away
I am not asking for much I am just asking for your love
Is all I need is all I want is all you got to give away
I am not asking for much

I am just asking for your love
Love won' let me down
Al3way be around
In my heart to keep me war5m
That is what I want
Love will always be my friend
Down to the every end
Take me away and lift me up

Never let go love is all I need
Is all I want I s all you got to give away
I am not asking for much I am just asking for your love
Is all I need is all I want is all you got to give away

I am not asking for much
I am just asking for your love
