"Give Me A Rise"

If you believe in me, take my hand let me lead you to a place , far away where the sun always shines, everyday it never rains, nobody cries everybody lives, nobody dies

So would you like to come with me?
I promise I'll show better things Things ain't seen before and I know we'll do this together
If you want to, then you got to come with me

Give me a rise, give me a reason and I promise that I'll take care of you my dear get your heart and I'll keep it safe with me is that OK?
so if you're willing to follow I promise to lead the way

So would you like to come with me?
I promise I'll show better things
Things ain't seen before and I know we'll do this
together
If you want to, then you got to come with me

And I'll show you where to go trust me baby I'll follow, baby let me know and I'll be there if you let me oh whoa
if I'm not with you I' ain't got nothing cause I believe you've got everything I need

So would you like to come with me?
I promise I'll show better things
Things ain't seen before and I know we'll do this
together
If you want to, then you got to come with me

So would you like to come with me?
I promise I'll show better things
Things ain't seen before and I know we'll do this

together

If you want to, then you got to come with me
