Girl I just wont stop, and you need to know

It's been soo long long long long, all I do is stare

And yes it's strong strong strong strong I didn't know it

So am I wrong wrong wrong wrong for givin up the past

She got me gone gone gone gone, she don't even care

Anytime I see her pretty face (pretty face)

And the way she swings them hips up on my waist (on

Ooh girl you take me to a whole nother place

And the way I feel just wont go away, girlll
