Oh look it's happening again somebody went and let themselves in even though i locked my heart away they found the key and let themselves in anyway you were there why couldn't you just let me be?

you know i just had a relationship that killed me and then you put this pretty face back in front of me what kind of mess, what kind of girl you want me to be

i don't want to love again i can't let my heart back in to a game that you cannot win don't wanna hurt
don't want no pain
can't let this begin

This word is gonna end up hurting me i don't know how this word even went and found me l.o.v.e
is gonna end up killing me and even if do give in i don't wanna to hurt again like i did when i tried this before my heart is weak don't know if i can take this anymore this affair we gotta try to make it last cause' i don't know if i can deal with things like in the past it seems that guys they all just try to walk all over me but all i know is we gotta start with honesty

to a game that you cannot win
don't wanna hurt

This word is gonna up hurting me
i don't know how this word even went and found me

don't wanna play no games don't wanna feel no pain don't wanna ever fall in love again a situation you just can't win don't wanna love again don't wanna ever love again
