I'm fading the light
And I'm changin' the sound
And I've figured out
What I need to now

And I'm hittin' the wall
But I'm breaking through
And I'm starting with you

Feeling safe and sound inside my arms
You never thought I could do that
Frozen with the fear you used to know

Woah you though you had me all
Figured out, but guess what else, I'm more
More to see than that

Feeling like I've never felt before
I'm flying, I'm soaring
Having a new outlook on
Life

I'm fading the light
And I'm changin' the sound
And I've figured out
What I need to now

And I'm hittin' the wall
But I'm breaking through
And I'm starting with you

You don't see the light inside my eyes
All you see is hit and run drive byes
But I know see the past of which you come

Woah I thought I had you all
Figured out, but I guess I'm wrong, your more
More to see than that

Feeling like I've never felt before
I'm flying, I'm soaring

Having a new outlook on
Life

I'm fading the light
And I'm changin' the sound
And I've figured out
What I need to now

And I'm hittin' the wall
But I'm breaking through
And I'm starting with you

Do you, do?
Do you, do you see?
Do you, see?

I'm fading the light
And I'm changin' the sound
And I've figured out
What I need to now

And I'm hittin' the wall
