Verse 1

She walks with conquest by her side
Her sass is colored by her stride
And when she walked by I was almost ready

I know that Ive been here before
To dumb to talk to smart to bore
I stare and she ignores Im never ready

Chorus pt1

She was wearing Green
Seventeen
Just might be senior prom queen
Or just a ghost a single dose and now Im haunted

Wearing Green

Seventeen
If today was Halloween
Then I would be everything that she wanted

Chorus pt2

I guess this means my heart is green

Verse 2

Regrets are falling to this scene
Of black and white and olive green
I guess its just routine that Im left standing

What is she running from today
If I could take her thoughts away
Would she then run my way?
Or leave me standing

Chorus pt1

She was wearing Green
Seventeen
Just might be senior prom queen
Or just a ghost a single dose and now Im haunted

Wearing Green

Seventeen

If today was Halloween
Then I would be everything that she wanted

Chorus pt2
I guess this means my heart is green

I know that Ill be here
Always watching waiting

And I know that youll be there
Always watching waiting

Bridge
I know that Ill be here
Always watching waiting

And I know that youll be there
Always watching waiting

I know I know
Youre changing me
Youre changing me
