"Goodbye Waves And Driveways"

Just walk away
Gather your thoughts for the second wave
Of this argument on this epic changing day
It's crazy to think that an hour ago all things were great
But we stand both proud both wrong and right
Throwing cheap shots in this stubborn fight
And our lives are so intertwined in one And we're just so stuck in this moment its clear that were coming undone

And you see it's hard for me to breathe
When I get all worked up with these feelings
And I don't know exactly how it is
That we can be so mad we consider to not exist
And we both know there's so much love clenched within our fists

The goodbye waves in the driveway just resonate
And yes I'm throwing it right back at her
While were drowning in rivers from our faces
We just wanna know if this is this over
Trembling silence fills the air
As we stand here so impaired, but so aware

I sit in this house
Alone with fresh photographs
And I just can't relax
Like cigarette smoke, I'm starting to choke on this Then half of my souls on the road in a car with a girl in a dress

See it's making it hard for me to breathe
When I get all worked up with these feelings
And I don't know exactly how it is Just to say I'm right, you're wrong, we both lose to win

The goodbye waves in the driveway just resonate
And yes I'm throwing it right back at her
While were drowning in rivers from our faces
We just wanna know if this is this over

Trembling silence fills the air
As we stand here whoa-oh

So hey now, maybe we're just being stupid
Hey, maybe we're being dumb
So hey now, maybe it's time that we stopped and we realize that like a flag in the wind we are one
And how at first it's made so pure and lovely
But in battle can be torn to shreds
But with time and with patience and love and affection
Can be fixed with needle and thread
Because I love you and you love me
And nothing will make this leave
I said I love you and you love me
And nothing will make, make, make, make this leave
So remember me, yeah!
Remember me, yeah!
Remember me

Don't walk away...
