This House is like Russia
With Eyes cold and grey You got me moving in a circle
I dyed my hair Red today
I just want a little passion
To hold me in the dark I know I've got some magic buried Deep in my heart yeah but my priest says
You ain't savin no souls
My father says
You ain't makin any money
My Doctor says
You just took it to the limit
And here I stand
With this sword in my hand
You can say it one more Time
What you Don't Like Let me hear it 1 more time then have a seat while I take to the sky

My heart is Like the Ocean it gets in the way so Close to touching freedom then I hear the guards call my Name if you don't like me just a little Why Do you hang around there she goes again
wearing those purple panties
there she goes again
wearing her heart there she goes again Why do you take it
