Shes going downtown
But she comes from uptown
Where the brokers and the dealers socialise
Shes going downtown
Cos shes a poet
And the chinese bakerys open all night

Toulouse lautrec called up today
Said its rock nroll anyway
Excuse me while im tearing off your head
Epiphany just went to ground
The three men just cant be found
The underground just shook its weary head

She said shes gonna show me around
The chinese bakery thats open
Twenty hours

Shes going downtown...

Got a roller coaster in my head
You press the button - ill eject
Your present is just somebodys past
Dont blink, pinch me twice
Just seen bob dylan on a motorbike
I dont think this relationship will last

She said shes gonna show me around
The chinese bakery thats open
Twenty hours
Shes going downtown...
And the chinese bakerys open all night
