We shall forever be triumphant, In our prime but far from our peek. We shall forever be triumphant, In our prime but far from our peek.

(This is where the change begins.)

So now, we see you have lied, So open your mouth and swallow your pride. So now, we see you have lied, So open your mouth and swallow your pride.

Opposed by all, defeated by none. Opposed by all, defeated by none.

We stand on top of this mountain of accomplishment,

I wish you could see me, I wish you could see me. We stand on top of this mountain of accomplishment, I wish you could see me. I wish you could see me. We stand on top of this mountain of accomplishment, I wish you could see me.

UNDEFEATED! UNDEFEATED!

I am the one who stands before you as your world starts to cave in,

As your victory becomes defeat your life is fading, To a lower place where you can't hide your shame, You did this to yourself, I am not to blame!

Defeated by none! (Defeated by none) Defeated by none! (Defeated by none)
