All the things that you say
Serve a purpose
But the reasons
Are all lost in time

All that you try to do
Isn't worthy of you
You have yours
Why destroy what is mine

It will come back to haunt you
Come back to taunt you
That's all that I want you
To know

What you are doing today
Will come back
Another way
It will come back to haunt you
Someday

You've put all your hopes
On negation
But your nightmares
Are dreams gone awry

You act like a clown
Tearing everything down
Your laughter
Makes everyone cry

It will come back to haunt you
Come back to taunt you
That's all that I want you
To know
