The rain drops I, tried to run away
They fall down, down upon me
I won't let it get me down
There's so much more to life
I'm gonna give it one more try
Because I gave it all away
And I'm still standing
I threw my world away
And I'm still standing
Oh, oh
And I gave it all away
And I'm still standing
In the sky I feel, I feel the power
Running through me
I won't let me drag me down
There's so much more to get
I'm gonna give it one more try
Because I gave it all away
And I'm still standing
I threw my world away
And I'm still standing
Oh, oh
And I gave it all away
And I'm still standing
Fellow raindrop, fall down
Because I gave it all away
And I'm still standing
I threw my world away
And I'm still standing
Oh, oh
And I gave it all away
And I'm still standing
Oh, oh
And I gave it all away
And I gave it all away
But I'm still standing
