A different attitude of mind
Is not something to be persecuted
No world Government knows
Justice and truth from organised crime
Do you think that someone telling you what's Right and what's wrong means liberty? I don't

Film stars on the silver screen
If there's one thing I know from TV
Good things don't happen to ugly people
A perfect smile's a good guy thing
They get the girl and they always win
Good things don't happen to ugly people

You were born to be the bad guy
You could make the hero look a little beat inside
You know it's wrong but it feels so right
Nothing to lose if you're going to die
You were born to be the bad guy
You could make the hero look a little beat inside
You know it's wrong but it feels so right
Nothing to lose

You've got a plan, a look in your eyes
You've got commitment and you know what you want
You've got a problem, history shows
There's always somebody telling you no
Anyone looks good in a tuxedo with a gun
But it takes style to become Public Enemy # 1

Always the bad guy, always the outsider
Always the bad guy, always the outsider
