Touchdown in a land on the western sun
Felt the heat on my back, yeah I felt that heat
On the edge of the world looking out to sea
At the start of my road I will take the lead

All you know
Where you go
Interstate
Interstate

At the end of the day I will count my stamps
Drink my poison down and sweat it out
All I see is the dirt going up my trunks
'Cause they're taking the road at another stop

All you know
Where you go
Interstate
Interstate

All you know
Where you go
Interstate
Interstate

I take it off on you when
It's not the bet you owe me
After all you get away

Tear the signs down
Burn up your road
Tear the signs down
Burn up your road

All you know
Where you go
Interstate
Interstate

All you know
Where you go

Interstate
Interstate

Tear the signs down
Burn up your road
Tear the signs down
Burn up your road
