I met a woman
Shining through the frame
Came like an angel
When I was down
She's recognized by
Her work and her fame
Why would she have to go
Why would she stay?

Not fade away
I gave you everything
I can't see your smile
I don't see you on your TV show (anymore)

The choice between
Pretender and screen
It's not easy
But she had to do
One kiss, one child
With a no name guy
When I sing this song
I become so sad

Chorus
