Right now, where am I?
Am I lost in the lost divide?
I look back, alone
The road that I've been moving on

Not gonna' open my eyes and see
Cause' I never want to believe

Let me stay, and stop
I don't want to see the bitter end
I still want to see my dreams
Although how wrong things could seem

If time allows, I want to head back
Until the end comes around, but it gives me lack
To trust in you

And when I'm done
Will you cry, fear to see the sun?
For another end of a story
Your smiles, gave me an one day glory
I have no regrets
Before you forget
I need to say so

So when I'm done
Don't you cry, or fear to see the sun
For another end of a story
Your smiles, gave me an one day glory
I have no regrets
Before you forget
I need to say so

Right now, where am I?
Am I lost in the lost divide?
I look back, alone
